

25 FREE things to do in Calvert County

- Commune with nature at King's Landing Park
- Peruse roadside stands for local produce
- Meander the boardwalks at Chesapeake Beach, North Beach, Solomons or Battle Creek Cypress Swamp
- Learn about the Bay at Chesapeake Biological Laboratory
- Picnic on the water's edge
- Trace the history of railroads at the Chesapeake Beach Railway Museum
- Hunt for fossils, shells and sea glass
- Paddle the Chesapeake Bay and the Patuxent River
- At Battle Creek Cypress Swamp discover why Thoreau said: "Hope and the future for me are ...in the impervious and quaking swamps"
- Visit a one-room schoolhouse
- Discover a local band at free open air concerts throughout the County
- Study over 100 species of birds in their natural habitat
- Visit art galleries showcasing local talent
- Open your eyes to the beautiful old barns recently named on the National Board of Trust for Historic Preservation list of the 11 most Endangered Places
- Visit the Arthur Storer Planetarium
- Watch sailboats race
- Spend an afternoon fishing or crabbing
- Explore the sites on the newly designated Star-Spangled Banner Trail
- Hike 15 miles of trails at American Chestnut Land Trust
- Stroll among the vines at one of our five wineries
- Trace early history at the Jefferson Patterson Park & Museum, an archaeological and environmental preserve
- Wander through antique shops and unique boutiques
- Experience the outdoors of our many recreation areas
- Bike along rolling hills or one of many paved paths
- Check out over 100 free County events at ecalvert.com

