New Doncaster Studio in Dunkirk, Md., Helps Women Dress for Success

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – July 16, 2008 – The newly opened Doncaster studio in Dunkirk, Md., provides a fun and relaxed shopping experience for women who seek high quality clothing. In Calvert County, Doncaster clothing is only available through a private appointment with wardrobe consultant, Pamela Cousins. “I help my clients define and enhance their sense of personal style through my wardrobe planning advice and expertise and I know my customers are confident wearing clothing that reflects their individuality through exquisite fabrics, sophisticated details and enduring quality,” Cousins said.

Doncaster provides New York-designed clothes in four distinctive collections each year using fabrics from around the world and drawing inspiration from both contemporary trends and timeless classics. Offering evening wear, sport, casual and professional clothing, as well as accessories like belts, handbags and scarves, Doncaster fashions are personally distributed through unique consultations with specialists who work one-on-one with their clients. Cousins says, “Our apparel has many loyal customers who appreciate Doncaster’s superior quality, detail and a fit more commonly found in couture houses.”

To receive a personal invitation to the upcoming trunk show, or to request a copy of the current catalog, contact Pamela Cousins at 410.257-7151 or 301.814.3225 or visit the Web site at www.doncaster.com. The next New Collection Trunk Show is scheduled for July 21-26, 2008.
