A Photographic Care Package for the Troops Calvert County Board of County Commissioners Seeks to Send Images of Calvert County to Local Active Duty Military Personnel

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – September 15, 2009 – The people and places of Calvert County can have a powerful hold on the memories of those who have lived and grown up here. Those memories can be especially acute for active duty military personnel stationed far from their homes.

The Calvert County Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) wants to share a small token of Calvert County with its sons and daughters serving their country. The BOCC is making available a special CD of images from the recent Focus on Calvert Photo Contest. The collection features images of the county's bucolic scenery and affable citizens taken by local shutterbugs.

The Department of Economic Development is administering the project and needs help in identifying local active duty military personnel. Friends and family of those serving can e-mail the department to pass on the names and addresses of their loved ones or request a CD of images. Photo collections sent by the department will include a letter of thanks for the recipients' courage and dedication.

Service member information or CD requests may be e-mailed to info@ecalvert.com.
Thank you for helping honor those who serve.
